

Dear Author,

Hello from the NH AuthorFest planning committee!

We have good news: The time, date, and venue for the fourth annual New Hampshire AuthorFest, has been set!

Big changes have been in the works for NH AuthorFest. Along with our new venue we are also looking to participate in book fairs held at New Hampshire bookstores throughout the year. This year we are holding NH AuthorFest at Barnes & Noble in Manchester, NH on April 9th, 2011, from 1:00 to 5:00. Barnes & Noble has expressed a lot of enthusiasm and support for our cause and we believe it will be a great venue to help promote literacy.

If you are interested in participating in the NHAF 2011 event, please fill out the application below. Participation will give you the chance to speak with readers and fellow authors, sign copies of your books, and help raise money to promote literacy.

As an attendee, you will be asked to adhere to the following:

1. To represent yourself, and to stay for the entire 4-hour block.
2. To bring your own promotional material for display during the event (e.g., posters of your book).
3. To donate one (1) book to a raffle. All proceeds from the raffles will be used to promote literacy in New Hampshire.
4. ALL NOVELS SUBMITTED TO NHAF MUST HAVE AN ISBN AND MUST BE ORDERABLE THROUGH INGRAM OR BAKER & TAYLOR. There are no exceptions to this rule.

We are very excited about the changes NHAF has made this year and want to see this organization continue to grow. Please visit our website and learn how you can become more involved in helping to enhance literacy.

Thank you for your time ~ We hope to see you at this year's New Hampshire AuthorFest!

Sincerely,

Jeremy Robinson
Stanley Tremblay
Kristina Schram
Tom Mungovan
Catherine Patton

~ It is the mission of New Hampshire AuthorFest to enhance literacy by engaging and inspiring readers and writers of all ages through the exploration, creation, and promotion of books and authors.
